

1

2

3

4

5

Debutant	Développement	Sur le bon chemin	Ca marche bien	Expert
Most words pronounced incorrectly	Some words pronounced incorrectly. This caused problems with understanding	Most words are pronounced correctly. Pronunciation did lead to some confusion a few times	Most words are pronounced correctly making the Lab easily understandable.	All words pronounced correctly. Understood!
Voice is hard to hear/distorted	Volume too low	Volume too low.	Volume is adequate and did not impeded understanding.	Volume is excellent.
No variety in sentence structure/length	Little variety in sentences	Little variety in sentences.	Some variety in sentences.	Used a variety of sentence structures.
Stumbled over multiple words/expressions	Stumbled over words/expressions	Student presented an average demonstration of fluency.	Student presented an average demonstration of French fluency. Student stumbled 2 or less times on words/expressions.	Student presented in French. Practice was evident. Student did not stumble and the Audio Lab had some flow.
Many English words mixed into presentation	Used English as a crutch multiple times throughout the Audio Lab	Used English to get through 5 or more sentences.	Rarely used English and stayed below the allotted "English words allowed"	En francais! 😊
Too short/ Not enough content	Did not meet time/content requirements	The assigned time was met. However their was not enough French content in the Audio Lab.	Assigned time was met. Student filled the time with adequate French sentences but used repetition to get enough time.	Student met the time goal for the Lab. Rich variety of content. Little to no repetition kept the Lab fresh.
No usage of grammar point studied during the week	Little effort made to use grammar point studied throughout the week	Some effort was used to inject the grammar point covered throughout the week into Audio Lab.	Obvious effort seen to use the grammar point covered throughout the week. However, the grammar point was used incorrectly at times.	Student used the weekly grammar point with success.